

FRIENDS OF BATH BOTANICAL GARDENS

WHOLE DAY EXCURSION

SATURDAY 2 SEPTEMBER 2017

VISIT TO KEW GARDENS, LONDON

This should be a wonderful day out for us all to enjoy – whatever the weather! There is so much to do at Kew. Our visit is timed to enjoy at its best the new herbaceous border which over the past two years since originally being planted is the highlight of early Autumn. We leave Bath at 8.30am and travel on the M4 to Kew Gardens, London making a stop at the Membury Service Station. We hope to arrive by 11.00am. You may choose to bring a picnic or to enjoy a selection of restaurants and cafes serving refreshments and delicious food made from locally-sourced ingredients. The formal gardens at Kew are constantly refreshed with seasonal colourful plants. There are so many different areas to enjoy, the walled gardens, the bamboo feature, the ‘hive’ being a giant beehive to highlight their place and need in our gardens, orchards and countryside. The Great Broad Walk Borders, Palm House Parterre, Rose Garden, Plant Family Beds and Rose Pergola, Duke’s Garden, Queen’s Garden – it goes on and on in the list for us to pick out. We will leave to return to Bath at 4.00pm to be back by about 6.45pm.
